CN Centre Nominated as Major Facility of the Year

Prince George's CN Centre is pleased to announce that it has been nominated in the category of "Major Facility of the Year" (under 8,000 seats), in the Canadian Music Industry Awards. The Canadian Music Industry Awards are the preeminent awards of the Canadian music business.

"This nomination is a credit to our CN Centre team and to all those who work hard to promote everything our community has to offer," says Mayor Colin Kinsley. "Not only is this proof of the great service provided by CN Centre staff, it will also help raise awareness and increase opportunities for concerts to be held at CN Centre."

Other facility nominees include the Crystal Centre, Grande Prairie, AB; the Ricoh Coliseum, Toronto, ON; the Brandt Centre, Regina, SK; the Enmax Centre, Lethbridge, AB; and the Steelback Centre, Sault Ste. Marie, ON.

Glen Mikkelsen, CN Centre's Event and Marketing Coordinator says, "This nomination is a great honour by our peers in the music industry. The award recognizes CN Centre's staff commitment to deliver superior customer service to promoters, musicians, and production crews." CN Centre also extends a big thank you to the many businesses that work to make its events successful and to the fans who continually show their support.

The Canadian Music Industry Awards gala takes place Thursday, March 6th in Toronto, Ontario. The awards ceremony is the highlight event of Canadian Music Week.
